Out of nothing

They

created

a

strange

new

universe

Where

it turned out

Only ghosts

could live

Only we got to use the Merry go rounds Luxurious baths
And the public transit
system
With only two lines,

X and Y

But

It was wasted on us
It was just another place
In which to wish we were at peace What I'm trying to say is

Let's go haunt someone
